

The Adam Dean Award

In a career spanning 20 years, Adam was widely known and respected throughout the industry, from starting Strata in the mid-1990's, to more latterly Business Development Director at Mouchel.

Adam was passionate about encouraging people starting out in their careers to get involved in their profession by sharing their knowledge and experience through papers and presentations. He saw it as an important step in building self-confidence, communication skills and engaging with the wider profession. Many of those who worked with Adam have benefitted significantly from his example and his encouragement in this regard.

The Adam Dean Award was founded 2015 in memory of Adam, with the aim of at encouraging those yet to take the big step of presenting at a national conference to develop a poster presentation.

Judging of the final posters will take place at the Urban Drainage Group Autumn Conference in Blackpool, and will be available for viewing throughout the conference. The presentation of the Award will take place on the final day.

The six Finalists for 2017 are:

Katherine Adams
Zara Herring
Robyne Lowes

Helen Baron
